

Hello,

This class amazes me! They are getting so grown up. They were a joy to have in class on Thursday! We are looking forward to another great week.

Colors continue to be our theme. We continue to promote one color per week. This week we will be looking at green. Throughout the day, children will be finding shapes around the room that are the color of the week. They will tell us the color and shape that they find. They love this scavenger hunt!

Tuesday there is no school. On Thursday we will make a winter mitten based on our color green, play color games and sing songs about colors. Please return your library books on Thursday.

Our helper and snack provider will be:

Tuesday – NO SCHOOL
Thursday –Leo

This past week you should have found Scholastic Book order forms in your child's bag. Book orders are due by January 17th. My hope is that all books should be received by February. To place an order, go to:
